

Kayle Anne Lewis

Kayla Anne Lewis is the Vice President of Human Capital Risk & HR Governance at Citi, currently residing in Tampa, Florida. Since joining Citibank, in their rotational program she has showcased her aptitude for strategic thinking and execution. As an Early Career Learning Advisor, she collaborates effectively with stakeholders and vendors, optimizing participant engagement and refining training content effectiveness. In her previous rotation as HR Advisor, she was involved with partnering with senior business leaders and management teams to strategize and execute HR goals, with a keen focus on talent development, performance management, and diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) initiatives.

Kayla Anne completed her MBA with a focus on Strategic Human Resource Management in 2021, and BBA in Marketing from Temple University's Fox School of Business in Philadelphia, PA in 2012. During her MBA program at UW-Madison she was a fellow of The Consortium for Graduate Study in Management and the Forte Foundation.

Originally hailing from Barbados, Kayla Anne maintains a strong connection to her roots, frequently visiting her home country. In her leisure time, she indulges in her passions for photography, traveling, attending live music events, and staying abreast of the latest advancements in artificial intelligence (AI). This multifaceted approach to life reflects her curiosity, creativity, and commitment to personal and professional growth.